

Veer Sammaan Foundation

Zen Technologies donated Rs 24L to AP Police and Rs 24L to Chattisgarh Police for the welfare of their Police organizations via Veer Sammaan foundation, the corporate social responsibility wing of Zen Technologies.

Veer Sammaan foundation is a registered trust of Zen Technologies Limited. Since 1993, Zen has been driven by a single-minded passion to ensure the welfare of our security forces. Zen has been providing state-of-the-art training solutions to the armed forces. As our heroes sacrifice their life for the safety of our nation, Zen believes that it is our duty to ensure that the families of our soldiers get the honour and the dignity they deserve. Veer Sammaan foundation was started with this aim in mind.

This foundation works towards the welfare of our security forces. Our security forces answer our call when we need them. We believe, it is our duty in turn to step up and answer to our security forces when they need us.

The foundation is guided by the philosophy of serving those who served us.
